Java Community Process
Executive Committee Meeting

May 3-4, 2011

Roll call

- ME EC
  - Stefano Andreani, Aplix, AT&T, CableLabs, IBM, Nokia, Oracle, RIM, Samsung, Sean Sheedy, Siemens, SK Telecom, T-Mobile, TOTVS, Vodafone.
- SE/EE EC
  - Credit Suisse, Eclipse, Ericsson, Fujitsu, Google, HP, IBM, Intel, Werner Keil, Oracle, Red Hat, SAP, VMware.
- PMO

Agenda (1)

- Roll call
- Agenda review
- Java in Korea (DH Kim – Oracle Sales)
- Personnel changes
- Special election update
- EC stats
- JavaOne 2011
- JCP.org and java.net
- Inactive JSRs
- Location of Fall f2f meeting
- JCP.next session (full EC)

Agenda (2)

- Java ME technology update (Roger Riggs)
- The other Java ME (Jon Courtney)
- Device detection and content adaptation (Stefano Andreani)
- Java applications for Digital TV (Aguinaldo Boquimpani)
- Samsung's involvement in Java (Vincent Kwon)
- Compatibility redux (Patrick Curran)
Included separately

Personnel changes

- SE/EE EC
  - None to report.
- ME EC
  - Radomír Věncek replaces Gero Schultz as alternate for T-Mobile (Deutsche Telecom.)
- PMO
  - Naoko Hamamoto has joined the PMO as a Program Manager.
- Oracle
  - Roberto Chinnici has left Oracle. No word yet on who will replace him in his Spec Lead role.
- Please check the EC-private contact pages and report any necessary updates to the PMO.

Special election

- Three vacancies on the SE/EE EC:
  - Doug Lea's ratified seat (term ends 2013.)
  - Apache's ratified seat (term ends 2013.)
  - Tim Peierls' elected seat (term ends 2012.)
- One vacancy on the ME EC:
  - Sony Ericsson's elected seat (term ends 2011.)
- Nominations are now closed and the election is in progress (started 26 April, finishes 9 May.)
  - New members take office 10 May.
- For the first time, we held Meet the Candidates conference calls (recordings available online.)
  - This transparency initiative was well-received.

Special election candidates

- SE/EE EC ratified seats:
  - Goldman Sachs (John Weir.)
  - SouJava (Bruno Souza.)
- SE/EE elected seat:
  - Central Ohio Java Users Group (Dan Sline.)
  - George Gastaldi.
  - Siddique Hameed.
  - Liferay Inc (Brian Chan.)
  - London Java Community (Ben Evans.)
- ME EC elected seat:
  - Alex Terrazas.
- See jcp.org for more information on the candidates.
Included separately

- Will be held in San Francisco October 2-6.
- Co-located with Oracle OpenWorld, but run as a separate conference.
- Located in *The Zone (*Hilton, Nikko and Parc 55.)
- Larger session rooms and increased exhibitor space.
- More content slots (technical sessions, BOFs, and hands-on labs.)
- More time and space for developer interaction and collaboration.
- Direct involvement from community representatives in planning and steering the event.

JavaOne call for papers

- Call for papers now open – closes May 23.
- Tracks:
  - Core Java Platform.
  - Java SE, Client-Side Technologies, and Rich User Experiences.
  - Enterprise Service Architectures and the Cloud.
  - Java EE Web Profile and Platform Technologies.
  - Java ME, Mobile, Embedded, and Devices.
  - The Java Frontier.
  - Emerging Languages, Tools, and Techniques.

- We will be represented, as usual.
- Plan to submit two sessions:
  - The JCP and the future of Java.
    - Panel discussion with EC members.
  - The JCP and the developer community.
    - Panel discussion with Java Champions and JUG Leaders.
- We'll also hold our usual party and award ceremony.
- The JCP.next Working Group has proposed an Open EC meeting during JavaOne.
  - Agenda to be chosen from member suggestions.
  - Let's do it!

Java Community Process

JCP.org and java.net

- We're working with the java.net team to create a JCP Community on java.net.
  - Taking over the defunct JSRs Community.

- Three sub-areas:
  - PMO (for general business.)
  - JSRs (one project for each JSR)
  - Archive (for old projects from the original JSR community.)

- Will soon create a JCP.next project with aliases, discussion forum, file-sharing, and issue-tracking.

- We have a long way to go, but hope to hire a contractor soon to help with the transition. Stay tuned...

Location of Fall f2f meeting

- We had planned to meet on September 13-14, at AT&T's facilities in Atlanta.
- AT&T have not confirmed that they can host this meeting.
- We need to find a backup.
- Volunteers?

Included separately

JCP.next

See online materials

Included separately

Included separately

Included separately

Included separately

Included separately

Included separately
- Tuesday March 22
  - Telecon: 2:00 pm PDT

Thank You!

http://jcp.org