At the JavaLand Conference in Germany on 25-26 March the JCP participated in two community-driven programs focused on Adopt-a-JSR and Adopt OpenJDK.

Topics covered:
- Introduction to Early Adopters Area and Adopt a JSR.
- Adopt OpenJDK.
- Java EE Configuration JSR.
- JSR 344, JavaServer Faces.
- JSR 354, Money & Currency.
- Discussions and joint hacking.
On 18 June the JCP, in collaboration with the Silicon Valley Java User Group, will host a 15-year anniversary party at the Computer History Museum in Mountain View, California.

We plan an evening reception with drinks and appetizers for ~100 guests including JCP members, EC Members, Spec Leads, and individuals who have played an influential role in helping the JCP to succeed.

Please mark your calendars. More details to follow.
• Proposed activities (details and dates/times TBD):
  • Sunday: EC Face to Face Meeting & Meet the EC Candidates, as part of User Group Sunday.
  • JCP party and awards presentation.
  • Monday-Thursday: EG meeting room available.
  • Spec Lead social event.
  • Activities in community space in DemoGrounds.

• Proposed conference sessions:
  • Adopt-a-JSR case study for Java EE.
  • Adopt-a-JSR case study for Java SE.
  • JCP BoF session (JCP, Adopt Programs, JCP.Next).
• We have received a JSR proposal from an individual JCP member (Jody Sharpe) that included a request for mentorship.

• We have discussed this topic in the past - usually in the context of an “incubator” process.

• We have agreed that some JSR submitters need help (in order to decrease the chances of their JSR crashing and burning during the JSR Approval Ballot), but have not been able to agree on a solution.

• We should discuss this again at the May f2f.

• In the meantime, can we provide some immediate review and hand-holding?
  • Perhaps the LJC could help?
The recent rejection of JSR 48 at the Final Approval Ballot stage raises a number of procedural issues that we should discuss in more detail (at the May f2f)?

In the meantime, Mike DeNicola has notified the EC that he plans to propose a motion to extend the deadline for the JSR 48 Spec Lead to resubmit the final materials for a Reconsideration Ballot from 30 to 90 days.
